As the SERVANTS of Christ doing the will of God from the HEART. Eph 6:6

Expectation Sheet: Operational Staff

Before:

- Pray that God would do a work in your own heart as well as in the hearts of campers.
- Read the book The Calvary Road by Roy Hession and write a summary on each chapter.

During:

- Be available from the beginning of staff training to the end of camp unless permission is granted by the camp director.
- Give up selfish ambitions, and by God's grace, give yourself totally to the service of God, the camp, and the campers each and every minute.
- Attend all evening rallies.
- Participate in the staff choir. (Singing ability is not required, only a desire to glorify God.)
- Each operational staff member will be asked to help in many various work projects other than your primary assigned responsibility.
- Be available to help with any task or chore that you may be asked to do, which will include cleaning your cabin, helping in the kitchen on weekends, and various other work projects.
- Help run free-time activities.
- Be interested in the lives of campers, make them feel comfortable, and help them in any way possible.
- Participate in skit time.
- Never complain about the rules, staff, program, or any other aspect of the camp ministry. Constructive criticism is welcome during staff meetings.
- Abide by all camp policies
- Attempt to practice and apply Ephesians 6:6 - "Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart."

After:

- Provide suggestions and constructive criticism in your after-camp staff survey.
- Be available for occasional questions about situations that happened at camp.
- As time permits, follow up with the campers that God lays upon your heart. Many times, the follow-up of a staff member after camp makes a dynamic impact upon the life of a camper.
