INFORMATION

Bring: Bible, pen, sleeping bag or sheets for a twin mattress, pillow, towel, washcloth, personal items, jacket, flashlight, sneakers, clothes for evening services, rugged clothing, water shoes, spending money for camp store (optional), and lots of enthusiasm.

Do NOT Bring: Tobacco, alcoholic beverages, vapes, drugs, electronics (except cameras), playing cards, magazines, books, knives, guns, fireworks, cell phones, smart watches, Fitbits, selfishness, or a bad attitude.

Camper Dress: In order to maintain modesty and consistency, we ask that you abide by the following standards while at camp. All clothing must be loose-fitting. All dresses, shorts, culottes, skirts, etc. must be at least knee-length and must touch the floor when kneeling. No sleeveless tops, low tops, or crop tops. No exposed shoulders, backs, or midriffs. No writing on the back of shorts/pants. No worldly advertisements or pictures on shirts.

Girls: Dresses or skirts and blouses (no T-shirts) required for evening services. Slits may not go above the bottom of the knee. Pants, shorts, or culottes may be worn for other activities. Leggings may not be worn alone as pants. A one-piece swimsuit should be worn under dark clothing for water activities. Swim skirts that are knee length may be worn instead of dark shorts or pants for water activities.

Guys: Casual pants (no jeans) and collared shirts required for evening services. Shorts, pants, or jeans and a shirt with sleeves may be worn for all other activities. Dark clothing should be worn for water activities.

The staff reserves the right to ask any camper to change clothing.*

Telephones: Campers will not have access to phones except for emergencies. If you have an emergency message that needs to be delivered to your child, please call (814) 497-4100 or (717) 808-7992.

Medications: All prescription and non-prescription medications as well as supplements must be turned in to the camp nurse at registration.

Lost and Found: Lost items not requested within one week after summer camp will be appropriately donated or discarded.
